Empire A. C. Case Hanging Fire Until Boxing Commission Re Some Advice From Courts.

1913, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World). THE Boxing Commission is now waiting to learn from the courts whether or not it has any legal right to hold an inquiry when a boxing ligh is accused of some sort of irregu-arity, and to penaltize the club, One might think, after rending over

T is ridiculous to talk about "empty coats" and "fifty people standing."

When I got in, shortly before the doors were closed, the alsles were jammed tight with standing spectators. I forced my way along one alse until about half way to the ring. There the jam was so tight that I couldn't gain another took. A his fellow in front of no was se tight that I couldn't gain another inch. A big fellow in front of me said: "Have you a box seat?"

"Bure," said I.
"Well," said he, "you'll never be able to get through here. Better work back and try the next aisle."
And I did, and finally elbowed and kneed my way to the cleared aisle close to the ring.
I dare say there were at least a though people standing on the main floor.

and people standing on the main floor. At LEAST a thousand.

At LEAST a thousand.

A BOUT the same time a friend of mine tried the gallery. The stairway was packed, he told me afterward, but he fought his way to the top. There he found solid rows standing up in front of him. He managed at last to wriggle into a place where he had an opening in front about as large as his hand. He's six feet tall. When Phere he found solid rows standing up

California's Governor Forces Club to Cancel His Son's Boxing Bout

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. M .- Archie Johnson, son of the SAN FRANCISCO, Cai., Jan. 22.—Archie Johnson, son of the Governor of California. will not box six rounds to-night with Ernie Clark of Los Angeles, amateur welterweight champion of the State. The bout was cancelled to-day by officials of the Olympic Club at the direct request of the Governor.

When Gov. Johnson discovered what a stir his son's bout was making throughout the State he requested Archie to call the affair off. Archie declined, saying he could see nothing wrong about amateur boxing. The Governor the directors of the Olympic Club then brought pressure to bear on the directors of the Olympic Club and the mill was cancelled. Young Johnson is an attorney here and is a boxer of considerable skill
